International Financial Statement Instructions

(Financial Statement Form on second page)

The I-20 or IAP-66 Certificate of Eligibility (required to obtain a student visa) cannot be issued without proof of sufficient financial resources and sponsorship verification statements.

The following instructions will assist you in preparation of the financial statement on the second page.

Section 1: Student's Statement of Financial Responsibilities

The applicant must read and complete Section 1 and sign it. If self-sponsored, the applicant should write "self" as the name of the sponsor and sign and date Section 2.

Section 2: Sponsor's Statement of Financial Responsibilities

The sponsor must sign and date Section 2. If the student is sponsored by an agency or government, such sponsorship, must be verified by an attached official statement to that effect. The original document must be on file at TCU.

Note: If a student has more than one sponsor, the student and each sponsor must complete a separate form and indicate the amount of support in Section 2. Copies of this form can be made for additional sponsors.

Self-sponsored individuals are required to show evidence of financial resources to cover two years of the program total estimated expenses.

Section 3: Financial Verification from Bank or Other Financial Institution

An Official of the sponsor's financial institution must complete, sign and affix the institution's official seal or stamp to a separate statement on the institution's letterhead (indicating that based on the records of the sponsor named, the sponsor should be able to meet the expenses as noted above). Section 3 must include supporting documents that show evidence of the funds or evidence of sufficient salary as well as the letter from the Bank.

Currency amounts must be specific and converted to their equivalency in U.S. dollars. (Ambiguous amounts stating only "low or high number of figures", or self-assessing financial documents, will not be accepted).

Note: All forms and evidence must be originals and submitted with a translation in English.
